The Oaklands

The Oaklands is well located close to the A40 in and out of the capital. It has shops, cafés and amenities close at hand and provides easy access to many leisure and activity facilities.

The Oaklands offers service users a safe and secure environment where there is a real focus on the development of social, educational and independent living skills.

The Oaklands provides service users with a homely atmosphere where there are staff available 24 hours per day, 7 days per week with a high staff to service user ratio.

The care element is under the registration of the Care Quality Commission.

The Oaklands offers easy access to all London boroughs as well as Hertfordshire, Middlesex, Surrey and the Thames Valley.
